J-I Work Travel Program

The work/travel program is an exchange program designed to give foreign university students the opportunity to work in the United States during their summer breaks. The maximum program length is 4 months and fits well with companies located in seasonal destinations.

J-I Training Non-Specialty Program

The Training Non-Specialty Program gives recent professionals as well as third and fourth year college students the opportunity to train with reputable US companies relating to their occupational field of study. The program has a flexible start and end date lasting up to 18 months. It is a great opportunity for trainees to experience structured, field-specific training in supervision, leadership and management.

J-I WORK TRAVEL

Work travel is a student exchange program designed to promote educational and cultural awareness around the world. Every year over half a million college students arrive in the United States for temporary employment and travel opportunities. These students meet new friends, exchange ideas, earn money, and travel the vast expanses of the United States.

Highlights and requirements include:

- 4 month Visa and support through SEVIS (Student Exchange Visitor Information System).
- Minimum 10 weeks work contract including the opportunity to extend earning potential to 4 months, or travel the US at the students expense.
- Worker's Compensation and medical insurance provided.
- Housing and meals made available.

Participants must be 18 - 28 years old with an intermediate level of English language proficiency and enrolled in a four year university.

J-I TRAINING & INTERNSHIP In Management

Signature Services sponsors young professionals towards obtaining J-1 Non-Specialty Visas for their internships in management training. These positions at reputable US companies will help trainees broaden their horizons and enable young professionals to develop their managerial skills in Hospitality Management, Commerce, Banking and Industry. Interns will be given a chance to look behind the scenes of how business is conducted in the USA through a structured training program. An internship will enhance the exchange visitor's skills in his or her occupation and improve their knowledge of US techniques, methods or expertise for a successful career in management.

This program offers:

- Candidates the opportunity to work along side MBA students from leading US universities and other professionals in the field of business management.
- Up to 18 months active participation in a structured approved training program and support through SEVIS (Student Exchange Visitor Information System).
- Housing assistance provided.
- Worker's Compensation and medical insurance provided.
- Competitive Internship (trainee) salary
